

Community Diary Notice

Mango Fest, Evening Producers' Market, Calabash Festival

In an effort to maximize the utilization of our local fruits, the Department of Agriculture will be putting on a mini Mango Fest on Wednesday July 19th 2017 at the Little Bay Public Market, as one of the highlights of the Producers Evening Market. The aim of the Mango Fest is to promote the use of mangoes “in and out” of season.

Interested persons can exhibit their skills and creativity and compete in various categories. The Mango Fest will highlight six (6) prized categories:

1. A Kids Section
2. Desserts: Cakes, Pastries, Ice creams
3. Candied Fruit/ Confectionaries
4. Food Dishes
5. Juices
6. Alcoholic Beverages: wines and liqueurs

To register your interest in the Mango Fest, call 491-3529 or visit the Department of Agriculture.

Exhibits will be received on the day of the Mango Fest on July 19th from 1:00pm until 2:30pm and judging will commence at 3pm.

The Producers' Evening Market will run from 4:00pm until 8:00 pm, so bring along extra products for sale.

Remember Mango Fest, Producers' Evening Market on Wednesday July 19th 2017 at Little Bay Public Market.. Come out, participate and celebrate with us.

Ministry of Agriculture
July 2017